WTN section pilot homepage info, to be posted on homepage by provider:

Junior Circuit

This tournament will use the ITF World Tennis Number (WTN) to group players. This is a pilot tournament to gather information before USTA officially launches this tool.
The WTN provides a global standard for players. It is a 40-1 scale with 40 being the beginner player and 1 being an elite professional. This scale is for all players, regardless of age, gender, or ability. Players will have a separate ITF World Tennis Numbers for singles and doubles.
ITF World Tennis Number was developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF). The ITF is an International Governing Body of Tennis that works with National Associations worldwide to support the growth of tennis.
For more information on the WTN, please click here.

Level 7

This tournament will use the ITF World Tennis Number (WTN) to select and group players into round robin draws. This is a pilot tournament to gather information before USTA officially launches this tool.
The WTN provides a global standard for players. It is a 40-1 scale with 40 being the beginner player and 1 being an elite professional. This scale is for all players, regardless of age, gender, or ability. Players will have a separate ITF World Tennis Numbers for singles and doubles.
ITF World Tennis Number was developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF). The ITF is an International Governing Body of Tennis that works with National Associations worldwide to support the growth of tennis.
For more information on the WTN, please click here.

Level 6

This tournament will use the ITF World Tennis Number (WTN) to seed and/or select players using a Modified Feed in Championship or Feed In Championship through the Quarterfinals. This is a pilot tournament to gather information before USTA officially launches this tool.

The WTN provides a global standard for players. It is a 40-1 scale with 40 being the beginner player and 1 being an elite professional. This scale is for all players, regardless of age, gender, or ability. Players will have a separate ITF World Tennis Numbers for singles and doubles.
ITF World Tennis Number was developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF). The ITF is an International Governing Body of Tennis that works with National Associations worldwide to support the growth of tennis.
For more information on the WTN, please click here.

Level 5

This tournament will use the ITF World Tennis Number (WTN) to seed and/or select and/or flight players into draws. This is a pilot tournament to gather information before USTA officially launches this tool.
The WTN provides a global standard for players. It is a 40-1 scale with 40 being the beginner player and 1 being an elite professional. This scale is for all players, regardless of age, gender, or ability. Players will have a separate ITF World Tennis Numbers for singles and doubles.
ITF World Tennis Number was developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF). The ITF is an International Governing Body of Tennis that works with National Associations worldwide to support the growth of tennis.
For more information on the WTN, please click here.

Custom/ Unsanctioned
This tournament will use the ITF World Tennis Number (WTN) to seed and/or select and/or flight players into draws. This is a pilot tournament to gather information before USTA officially launches this tool.
The WTN provides a global standard for players. It is a 40-1 scale with 40 being the beginner player and 1 being an elite professional. This scale is for all players, regardless of age, gender, or ability. Players will have a separate ITF World Tennis Numbers for singles and doubles.
ITF World Tennis Number was developed by the International Tennis Federation (ITF). The ITF is an International Governing Body of Tennis that works with National Associations worldwide to support the growth of tennis.
For more information on the WTN, please click here.