Green & Yellow Ball Competitive Pathway

Green and Yellow ball competitive pathways are designed for students wanting to take their tennis to the next level. The class is by invitation only by Coach Bill or Coach Jason. Students will sign a contract beginning of each session to show their commitment to the class and to the game. Students will be held accountable for their actions. Players wanting to join the competitive pathway class are looking to play high school tennis, in high school, or looking at colleges to play tennis.
